The Canadian Boundary. The boundary between British and republican America is unmarked by anything in the nature of a wall or a fence. In traveling from Montreal to New York the train suddenly slows down and stops in the midst of green fields. It is then boarded by United States revenue officers, who want to know whether you have "anything to. declare." That is how you know that you have reached the international boundary line,-London Chronicle. All the news all the time-The Argus.
